Q.61

The student might not find the material interesting or is struggling to understand. We can introduce open-ended activities to stimulate interest and increase student interaction. We should also adapt our teaching method to and provide extra support. This could include introducing study partners so they learn from

Q.62

We will assign a buddy to support her and encourage group activities that promote interaction. Take the initiative to discuss cultural differences and organize games to help her feel a sense of belonging in the class. Additionally, consider inviting her family to share the culture of her country. (48 words)
